Return to Civil Life

Resumed former activities in civil life under much the same conditions as before? (yes or no)

If not, what changes occurred with respect to occupation, employer, etc. and why?

If a change of occupation was occasioned by reason of disability acquired in the service, describe the process of re-education and readjustment, and indicate the agencies or individuals chiefly instrumental in furnishing the new start:

Home address: (street number) (town) (county) (state)

The information contained in this record (except as otherwise indicated) was obtained from the following persons or sources:

Note. The value of this record will be greatly increased if there is filed with it a photograph of the subject, preferably in uniform, together with letters or copies of letters written by him, a specially written account of his experiences, and other things connected with his life in the service.
